

7. At intervals to be agreed upon by the partners herein, an accounting will be taken of the business, and a copy of such accounting furnished each partner, who shall be bound thereby, unless some manifest error shall be discovered, in which case such error shall be rectified. Upon the basis of such accounting, net profits, or losses, will be determined and divided accordingly. The accounting shall be made by both partners herein, or by some accountant to be agreed upon by the partners.

8. Neither partner shall have the right to withdraw any amount from the partnership beyond the weekly salary to be paid each partner.

9. Each partner herein shall:

(a) Diligently attend to business and devote his whole time and attention thereto.

(b) Punctually pay his separate debts and indemnify the other partner and the assets of the firm against the same and all expenses on account thereof.

(c) Forthwith pay all moneys, checks and negotiable instruments received by him on account of the firm into the said bank to the firm account.

(d) Be just and faithful to the other of them, and at all times give to such other full information and truthful explanations of all matters relating to the affairs of the partnership, and afford every assistance in his power in carrying on the business for their mutual advantage.

(e) Be authorized to sign any check on behalf of the firm for a sum not exceeding $500.00.

10. Neither partner shall without the consent of the other:

(a) Either directly or indirectly engage in other business.

(b) Employ or dismiss any agent or servant of the firm.

(c) Lend any of the moneys or deliver upon credit any of the goods of the firm to any person or persons whom the other partner shall have previously in writing forbidden him to trust.

(d) Give any Security or promise for the payment of money on account of the firm unless in the ordinary course of business.

(e) Enter into any bond, or become bail, indorser or surety for any person, or knowingly cause or suffer to be done anything whereby the partnership property may be seized, attached, or taken on execution or endangered.
