JUDGMENT

ALVIN GARRETT, :

Defendant. :

----- X

The above-entitled action having been brought on by plaintiff against the defendant for a judgment annulling the marriage heretofore existing between the parties hereto, upon the ground of the fraud of the defendant as set forth in the verified complaint herein; the defendant having been duly served personally within the State of New York on September 9, 1946 with summons and verified complaint in this action, and more than forty days having elapsed since said service, and the defendant having appeared in writing and having appeared in writing through his attorney, W. E. Bowen, Esq., and the plaintiff by her attorney, Edward B. Winkler, Esquire, having appeared and presented her verified complaint, due proof of the service of the summons and verified complaint on the defendant, affidavit of regularity of this proceeding, and testimony having been heard in open Court on the 3rd day of December, 1946, including the testimony of the plaintiff, sustaining the allegations set forth in the verified complaint herein; and the Court having thereupon fully heard and considered the proofs offered, including the written notice of appearance of the defendant and of the defendant's attorney, W. E. Bowen, Esq., and having made a decision in writing separately stating the findings of fact and conclusions of
