

5. To acquire the good will, rights, and property of any kind, and to undertake the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation; to become a member of any partnership, or a party to any lawful agreement for sharing profits, or to any union or existing agreement for reciprocal concession, joint adventure, or cooperation, or mutual trade arrangements with any person, firm, association, or corporation engaged in or about to engage in any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this corporation, and to lend money, or otherwise assist any such person, firm, association, or corporation.

6. To conduct its business (including dealing with real and personal property), and to have one or more offices in any of the states, or possessions of the United States, and in any and all foreign countries, subject to the laws of such states, possessions or countries.

7. In general, to carry on any other lawful business whatsoever which may appear to the corporation capable of being carried on in connection with the foregoing, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the interests of the corporation or to enhance the value of its properties; and to have, enjoy, and exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges now or hereafter conferred upon corporations organized under the laws of this state.

The foregoing enumeration of the objects, purposes and powers of the corporation is not intended and shall not be construed or held to prohibit or limit the exercise of any other or further rights and powers which may now or hereafter be allowed or permitted by law to the corporation.

(Continued on Next Page)