

(e) After the death of the Settlor, the income from the trust property shall be divided between Harrison King and Mrs. Caroline King Ryer on an equal basis and shall be paid to them in monthly installments, or in quarterly installments, in the discretion of the Trustee. If either Harrison King or Mrs. Caroline King Ryer should die leaving minor children, then the Trustee shall pay to the surviving children for their support, education and comfort income from the trust to which the parent would have been entitled to receive.

(f) The Trustee shall have the power, in its sole discretion, to encroach upon the principal of this trust to provide for the care, support, maintenance and comfort of the Donor, Lucy H. King Shearer, Harrison King, Mrs. Caroline King Ryer, and the issue or beneficiaries of said trust.

(g) Twenty-one (21) years after the death of the survivor of Harrison King and Mrs. Caroline King Ryer the trust will be terminated and the corpus divided equally among the children of Harrison King and Mrs. Caroline King Ryer, per stirpes. Should either Harrison King or Mrs. Caroline King Ryer die without issue, then the corpus and income shall go to the issue of the remaining survivor, per stirpes.

(h) The Donor reserves the right for herself or any other person at any time by will or deed to add to the corpus of the trust created herein. Any property so added shall
