

AND we do each hereby bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, to warrant and forever defend, all and singular, the said premises unto the said American Friends Service Committee, its successors and assigns, against ourselves (subject only to the life estates set out above) and against our heirs and against every person whomsoever lawfully claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof.