

3. To commence, prosecute, discontinue or defend all actions or other legal proceedings touching my estate or any part thereof or touching any matter in which I or my estate may in any wise be concerned.

4. Out of the monies coming into her hands to pay my expenses in respect to any part of my estate as my attorney shall think fit.

5. To continue the operation of my business affairs in particular my securities and investment brokerage business known as the Joe McAlister Company, or in the discretion of my attorney to wind up and liquidate the said business, or to sell the same as a going concern or to sell any part or parts thereof or to lease or otherwise provide for the temporary operation of said business either for short terms or long periods and in connection therewith to have the same powers of dealing with the stock, capital, equipment, furniture and furnishings, good will, clients' accounts, effects and accounts receivable and of entering into contracts in connection therewith as I myself have or should have.

6. To have complete access and control over all my bank accounts including the right to draw checks upon said accounts for any and all purposes and the further right to have access to my safety deposit box at the South Carolina National Bank at any and all times and from time to time according to the wishes of my attorney and my said attorney shall have the right to remove any and all objects, monies, papers and documents and any other thing which may be therein and a corresponding right to place additional documents, papers, monies and other things in said safety deposit box the same as if I were present personally and acting for and in my own behalf.

7. For all and any of the purposes of these presents to enter into, sign, seal, execute, acknowledge and deliver any contracts, deeds,

(CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE)