OLIVER B. WORTH
NOTARY PUBLIC

STATE OF FLORIDA)
 : SS
COUNTY OF VOLUSIA)

Before the subscriber, a Notary Public in and for the State of Florida at Large, personally appeared Norman G. Anderson who being duly sworn according to law did depose and say:

Affiant is the surviving spouse of Mary Lang Cheves Anderson, who died intestate in Oak Ridge, Tennessee on October 22, 1962; that at the time of her death the legal residence of affiant and decedent was at 1 Freeman Avenue, New Smyrna Beach, Volusia County, Florida, where affiant and his said wife had lived for three years continuously prior to her death.

That by deed dated July 12, 1951, recorded July 13, 1951 in Book 438 of Deeds, page 135, Ray Williams conveyed to affiant, Norman G. Anderson and Mary C. Anderson, his wife, a certain parcel of land situate and being in Butler Township, Greenville County, State of South Carolina, located on the branches of Rocky Creek, containing 83.4 acres as shown on plat prepared by W. J. Riddle, surveyor, October 23, 1935, being the same property conveyed to the said Ray Williams by S. M. Jones by deed dated December 29, 1939, recorded in Deed Book 217, page 37, as more particularly described in the conveyances above recited. That the prior name of the said Mary C. Anderson was Mary Lang Cheves, she having been a widow at the date of the marriage to affiant; that the said Mary C. Anderson also known as Mary Lang Cheves Anderson, was survived by two children by her previous marriage to Mr. Cheves, namely, a daughter, Margaret Cheves Waller, married to William Waller, Jr., Forsythe Place, Nashville, Tennessee, and Janet Cheves Paden, a daughter, married to Carter N. Paden, Jr., of Aladdin Road,
