

8. The general nature of the business for which the corporation is organized is (it is not necessary to set forth in the purposes powers enumerated in Section 2.2) (12-12.2 Supplemental Code 1962)

To take and receive mortgages on real estate; to speculate in the buying and selling of first mortgages, second mortgages or other commercial paper; to engage in the general business of investments, whether subh be in the field of real estate investments or commercial investments; to engage in the buying and selling of real estate; and to do everything that is necessary and proper to the conduct of the above designated fields and to otherwise engage in business not prohibited by the laws of this state.

9. Provisions which the incorporators elect to include in the articles of incorporation are as follows: