

8. The general nature of the business for which the corporation is organized is (it is not necessary to set forth in the purposes powers enumerated in Section 2.2) (12—12.2 Supplemental Code 1962)

The general nature of the business in which the corporation will engage is the operation of a general insurance agency. The corporation shall conduct a general insurance agency which includes, but is not limited to, the writing of insurance policies of all types, and to do everything incidental and necessary to the operation of a general insurance agency.

9. Provisions which the incorporators elect to include in the articles of incorporation are as follows: