Personally appeared before me, D. L. Bramlett, Jr. who after being duly sworn deposes and says that (s)he knew Mrs. Rossie McKinney personally and knows of his own knowledge that she died without a will on the 19th day of May 1963

Deponent also knows of his own knowledge that Mrs.
Rossie McKinney did live with William E. Coker and Virgil M.
Coker, her son-in-law and daughter, and that they furnished her needs and companionship to her during her lifetime subsequent to her deeding the property to them in 1951 in Deed Book 429 at Page 424, which deed reserved a life estate unto Rossie McKinney with the provision, and a part of the consideration therefor, that William E. and Virgil M. Coker see after her needs during her last days.
