

And the party of the first part does hereby authorize and empower the said JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, its successors and assigns, to collect the said rents, issues, profits, revenues, royalties, rights and benefits, as they shall become due, and does hereby direct each and all of the tenants of the aforesaid premises to pay such rents as may now be due or shall hereafter become due to the said JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, its successors and assigns, upon demand for payment thereof by said Company, its successors and assigns. It is understood and agreed, however, that no such demand shall be made unless and until there has been a default in the payment of the indebtedness secured by the deed of trust or mortgage herein mentioned, or default in the payment of any other sums secured by said deed of trust or mortgage, and until such demand is made the party of the first part is authorized to collect, or continue collecting, said rents, issues, profits, revenues, royalties, rights and benefits; but that such privilege to collect, or continue collecting, as aforesaid by the party of the first part shall not operate to permit the collection by the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, of any instalment of rent in advance of the date prescribed in said lease or leases for the payment thereof.

The term of this assignment shall be until the certain note.....and deed of trust or mortgage, (or any extension or renewal thereof) dated.....January 21, 1965....., made, executed and delivered by
Nicholas A. Peck and Jane M. Peck

to JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, covering the above described premises for the sum of Eighty Thousand and No/100----- ($80,000.00) Dollars shall have been fully paid and satisfied, or until the expiration of the period of redemption, if any, at which times this assignment is to be fully satisfied, cancelled and released, and the releasing of said deed of trust or mortgage shall constitute a release hereof.

This assignment is given as additional security for the performance of each and all of the obligations and covenants of the note and deed of trust or mortgage above described (or any extension or renewal thereof), and the amounts collected hereunder, less the expenses of collection, if any, shall be applied on account of taxes and assessments on said real estate, insurance premiums and delinquencies of principal and interest thereunder.

It is expressly covenanted and agreed by the undersigned party of the first part, assignor, that at the time of the execution and delivery of this assignment there has been no anticipation or prepayment of any rents by any of the tenants occupying the above described property or by any of the lessees in any of the above described leases.

It is further covenanted and agreed that the party of the first part, assignor, and his successors or assigns, shall have no right, power or authority to alter, modify or amend the terms, or any of them, of any of the leases above described in any particular whatsoever without first obtaining the consent in writing of JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY to such alteration, modification or amendment.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as making the JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, or its successors and assigns, a mortgagee in possession, nor shall said Company, or its successors and assigns, be liable for laches, or failure to collect said rents, issues, profits, revenues, royalties, rights and benefits, and it is understood that said Company is to account only for such sums as are actually collected.
