

Giving and granting unto my said attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act, deed, matter and thing whatsoever in and about my estate, property and affairs as fully and effectually to all intents and purpose as I might or could do in my own proper person if personally present, the above specially enumerated powers being in and an exemplification of the definition thereof; and hereby ratifying all that my said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents including any execution of the powers herein granted in favor of my said attorney or any transaction, dealing or undertaking with my said attorneys by virtue thereof, and I hereby declare that any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by my said attorneys shall be binding on myself, and my heirs, legal and personal representatives, and assigns, whether the same shall have been done before or after my death, or other revocation of this instrument, unless and until reliable information or notice thereof shall have been received by my said attorney.

The power given in the premises to my named attorney shall, for the purposes of initiating any new transaction or act, terminate, cease, lapse as of 19 November, 1967.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13th day of December, 1966.
