Amendment to Article 3: The Grantors shall have the right to Landscape within said right-of-way with the use of small trees and shrubs. Should it become necessary to make any changes and repairs to said pipe lines, the grantee hereby agrees to dig up and preserve any plant materials within the right-of-way which he feels will interfere with said changes, or repairs. Upon completion of all work, the Grantee will replace these plants to the Grantors satisfaction, all this to be done at no cost to the Grantors. In the event that any plants should become damaged or destroyed, the Grantee will replace said plants with the same variety and size at no cost to the Grantor. Further, care should be taken by the Grantee not to severely damage or destroy any plant or plants during maintenance of the right-of-way. Should said plants be so injured, the Grantee shall replace them at no cost to the Grantors, and in the same variety and size as those being replaced.
