In 1879, approximately twenty nine (29) acres adjacent to and on the northwest side of the above thirty seven and one-half (37 1/2) acres was acquired by James Augustus Garrison and Ann Elizabeth Rosman Garrison (Deed Book JJ, page 501); as related above, James Augustus and Ann Elizabeth Rosman Garrison never married and James Augustus Garrison died in 1918 and Ann Elizabeth Rosman Garrison in 1891, so that in 1918 this property was claimed and owned solely by Ella Tarrant Eskew as heir at law.
