

deemed desirable; and to secure such loan or loans by a pledge or mortgage of any of my property, real or personal, with the power to execute such notes, mortgages or other instruments as may be desired or required in connection with such loans or any renewals or extensions thereof.

6. To take any action which I might take concerning any contract in which I may be interested, or any other business transaction, or any property which I have or may be interested in, with the power to execute any and all documents, releases or instruments in writing as may be convenient, necessary or proper in the premises.

7. To do any and all things which she may deem necessary, desirable or proper in the management and handling of my affairs, as fully and as effectively as I might do myself, whether or not such powers be herein specifically mentioned.

8. I specifically provide that any person or concern dealing with my said attorney shall have full right to rely completely on the representations or statements of my said attorney, and that the powers herein granted shall continue and be fully effective irrespective of my condition, until revoked in writing.

GIVING AND GRANTING unto my said attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and deed in and about my estate, property and affairs as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I might or could do in my own proper person if personally present and capable of acting, the above enumerated powers being in aid of the full, complete and general powers herein granted and not in limitation thereof, and I do confirm and ratify all that my said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents.
