

The Grantor reserves the right or easement to continue to use and maintain all existing water, sewer, telephone, electric and other utility lines, easements, conduits and apparatus across and through the above described property for the purposes of serving adjoining property now owned by Grantor, which rights and easements the Grantor may convey to others for such purpose or purposes.

0951

4328 RV-2