

owner whose residence is to be so damaged. All such maintenance, repair and replacement shall be subject to all of the requirements and shall be performed in accordance with the standards set forth in this subparagraph E, and shall meet the requirements or standards of all governmental bodies or agencies having jurisdiction thereof.

2. No residence owner shall paint or otherwise decorate, or change the appearance of, any portion of the exterior of the residence except as provided in this Declaration or the By-Laws of the Association.

3. No residence owner shall make any alteration or addition to, or service any parts of, or do any work which would jeopardize the safety or soundness of, any portion of the residence contributing to the support of the residence, which supporting portions shall include but not be limited to the outside walls of the residence and any load-bearing walls or columns within or without the residence.

4. No residence owner shall be required or authorized to repair, reconstruct or rebuild all or any part of his residence under any circumstances in which the responsibility for such repair, reconstruction or rebuilding is specifically placed upon the Association under other paragraphs of this Declaration.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Declaration, and for the benefit of the residence owners as a group, the Association may, but is not required to, do anything that a residence owner is required to do hereunder (including, without limitation, residence repair and window replacement):

(a) in the discretion of the Manager, in the case of an emergency;

(b) in the discretion of the Board of Directors, in the case of convenience for the Association; and

(c) in the discretion of the Board of Directors, in the case that the residence owner fails to perform his duty.

Action by the Association under this subparagraph E.5 shall be at the cost and expense of the residence owner who will be assessed therefor by the Association.
