

transfer, set over, assign, and convey, and by these presents have granted, bargained, sold, released, transferred, set over, assigned and conveyed unto William H. Willimon, Harriet Anne W. Cabell, and R. C. Willimon, Jr., the sole children of Robert C. Willimon, each an undivided one-third (1/3) interest in the assets devised to them through the undersigned as their trustee under said will (the same constituting a one-eighteenth (1/18) interest each in the total ownership of said trust).

This includes all of my right, title and interest as trustee aforesaid in and to all of the assets of every kind, nature or description now belonging to said trust, i.e. the trust created by William Henry Willimon by his will dated June 15, 1940 and contained in the records of the Probate Court for Greenville County, South Carolina in Apartment 531, File 13.

Without in any manner limiting the nature of such assets by this enumeration, this conveyance includes:

All real property belonging to said trust including that situate in Greenville and Greenwood Counties, South Carolina and in Transylvania County, North Carolina, together with all and singular the rights, members, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging or in any wise appertaining, all tangible and intangible personal property, and all rights and demands whatsoever which may constitute an asset of this trust.

It is the intention of this instrument to ratify the conveyance to the grantees by said general trustees to the grantees, and to release, waive and convey in favor of the said children of Robert Charles Willimon any interest or title the undersigned might have as their trustee under said will.
