Lessee will not be permitted to remove any such modifications or improvements in place unless permitted by Lessor with specific written expressed approval for such removal. In the event any such improvements are permitted to be removed, Lessee shall restore the premises to substantially the same condition as when leased, reasonable wear and tear, and damage from the happenings of Nature, acts of God, fire, windstorms, or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of Lessee, excepted.

13. If, during the term hereof, or any extensions hereof, the leased premises shall be destroyed or so substantially damaged as to render such premises uneconomical to repair, and Lessor notifies Lessee that such repair will not be made, this Lease shall terminate as to such premises and the rent shall be abated prorata. Lessor may, if suitable other premises are available, offer Lessee such other premises on either a temporary basis or otherwise. Any such substitution of premises will be subject to mutual agreement as to rent, term, and other applicable terms and conditions.
