

Rabon Creek Rural Water District's By-laws, policies, rules, regulations, and rates, now in force and as hereafter amended, have transferred, conveyed, granted, bargained, sold and released and do by these presents transfer, convey, grant, bargain, sell and release unto Rabon Creek Rural Water District, its successors and assigns, forever:

ALL that four (4") inch PVC waterline and two and one-half (2½") inch PVC waterline, service lines, fittings, hydrants, valves, blowoff valves, and other apparatus and equipment, as now in place, situate, lying and being in the State of South Carolina, County of Laurens and County of Greenville, installed and located in and along paved county roads, known as Scuffletown Road and Carolina Way, Scuffletown Road running in an easterly direction from the intersection of S. C. Highway 418 and Scuffletown Road (Cook's Crossroads) in Laurens County into Greenville County and Carolina Way in Greenville County, running off of Scuffletown Road, making a loop through Carolina Springs Subdivision, connecting back to Scuffletown Road, consisting of approximately five thousand two hundred eighty (5,280') feet of four (4") inch PVC waterline, running in and along existing paved county road known as Scuffletown Road, in an easterly direction, from existing waterline of Rabon Creek Rural Water District on S. C. Highway 418, at the intersection of Scuffletown Road and S. C. Highway 418 (Cook's Crossroads), to entrance of Carolina Springs Subdivision, at paved County road known as Carolina Way, and consisting of approximately six thousand seven hundred ninety feet (6,790') of four (4") inch PVC waterline and eight hundred and fifty (850') feet of two and one-half (2½") inch PVC waterline, running in and along existing paved county road, known as Carolina Way, which runs off of Scuffletown Road, making a loop through Carolina Springs Subdivision, connecting back to Scuffletown Road, together with service lines, fittings, hydrants, valves, blowoff valves, and other apparatus and equipment.

TOGETHER with all and sundry the tenements, heridaments, appurtenances thereunto, belonging or in anywise incident or appertaining, and the reversion and reversions remainder, and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also, all estate, right, title, interest, property in possession, claim, or demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity, of Carolina Springs Golf and Country Club, Inc. in or to said premises ~~xxx~~ hereby conveyed.
~~xxxxxx part and parcel xxxxxxxx of xxxxxxxx xxxxxxxx xxxxxxxx~~

*John
G. [unclear]*

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto Rabon Creek Rural Water District, its successors and assigns, forever.

AND Carolina Springs Golf and Country Club, Inc. for itself, its successors and assigns, do hereby warrant to Rabon