Harry S. Abrams died testate in Greenville County, South Carolina on January 27, 1977. See Apartment 1454, File 10, Probate Court for Greenville County, South Carolina. In his Will, he bequeathed and devised a portion of his estate to his grandchildren, who are: Philip S. Rovner, Jeffrey E. Rovner, and David B. Rovner, the children of Anita A. Rovner; Barry M. Koplen, Donald A. Koplen, and Lisa Sue K. Barzel, the children of Ruth A. Koplen; and Ross L. Abrams, Susanne Abrams, and Randall B. Abrams, the children of Irving E. Abrams. The Grantees, who are the only children of Harry S. Abrams, and his grandchildren have agreed that the grandchildren shall take their shares in cash, the amount of which they have determined, in full satisfaction of the share to which they are entitled under the Will. This deed is intended to and does hereby convey the entire interest of the Grantors to the Grantees in and to the real property described above (as well as any other real property which Harry S. Abrams owned or in which he may have any interest at the time of his death, whether or not described herein).

All grandchildren have attained their majority in age.
