

10. In general, to do all other acts, deeds, matters, and things whatsoever in or about our estate, property and affairs or to concur with persons jointly interested with myself therein in doing all acts, deeds, matters and things herein, either particularly or generally described, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as we or any one of us could do in my or our own proper person if personally present.

11. And we hereby ratify and confirm and promise at all times to ratify and confirm all and whatsoever our attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done in and about the premises by virtue of these presents, including anything which shall be done between the revocation of these presents by the death of any of us or in any other manner and notice of such revocation reaching our attorney; and we hereby declare that as against us and all persons claiming under us everything which our attorney shall do or cause to be done in pursuance hereof after such revocation as aforesaid shall be valid and effectual in favor of any person claiming the benefit thereof who before the doing thereof shall not have had notice of such revocation.

This Power Of Attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of any principals which renders any of the principals incapable of managing his or her (ours) own estate.

This Power of Attorney shall be revoked by death or revocation in writing. Revocation will be effective only as to the interest of the principal revoking by writing or dying. It shall not be revoked by physical or mental incapacity of any of us.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seals this 24th day of May, 1979.
