GREENVILLE CO. S. C. JUN 7 12 04 PH 179

VOL 110 Jan 289

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLANNE S) TENSERSLEY

AFFIDAVIT

COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

PERSONALLY appeared before me William B. James, a practicing attorney at the Greenville Bar, State of South Carolina, and that on or about the 23rd day of September, 1977, he was retained by Henry D. Jowers and Cheryl K. Jowers to check a title to a piece of property in the name of Dean S. Heath as shown in Deed Book 608, page 157, RMC Office for Greenville County, and that at the same time he handled a loan closing with Family Federal Savings & Loan Association to a piece of property on the northern side of East North Street Extension, formerly Old Spartanburg Road, and on the eastern side of Selwyn Drive, being known as the major port on of Lot 21 of Timberlake as shown in Plat Book BB, page 185. That the deponent further states that he is acquainted with and knew Doriette Deane Heath and that he knows to his own knowledge that Doriette Deane Heath, Dean 3. Heath and Deane 3. Heath are the one and same person; and although the property was deeded in the name of Dean S. Heath in Deed Book 608, page 157, and the deed from Charles N. Foster, Administrator C.T.A. of the Estate of Doriette Deane Heath, appears to be a difference in the name, but that the property described in Deed Book 1065, page 373, and in Deed Book 608, page 157, belonged to Doriette Deane Heath who at times traded in the name of Dean S. Heath and Deane S. Heath, but that he knows to his own knowledge that the persons herein named are the one and same person.
