(if any) of the County from the Project are not subject to either Federal or South Carolina taxation and that under present law there is no tax imposed upon leasehold estates in South Carolina, and

(ii) that these factors, among others, have induced the Lessee to enter into this Agreement.

However, the Lessee will pay, as the same become due, all taxes and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may at any time be lawfully assessed or levied against or with respect to the Project or any machinery, equipment or other property installed or brought by the Lessee therein or thereon (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any taxes levied upon or with respect to the Lease Rentals of the County from the Project which, if not paid, will become a lien on the Project prior to or on a parity with the lien of the Indenture or a charge on the Lease Rentals therefrom prior to or on a parity with the charge thereon and the pledge or assignment thereof to be created and made in the Indenture, and including all ad valorem taxes lawfully assessed upon the leasehold estate hereby granted and conveyed to the Lessee in the Project), all utility and other charges incurred in the operation, maintenance, use, occupancy and upkeep of the Project and all assessments and charges lawfully made by any governmental body for public improvements that may be secured by lien on the Project; provided, that with respect to special assessments or other governmental charges that may lawfully be paid in installments over a period of years, the Lessee shall be obligated to pay only such installments as are required to be paid during the Lease Term.

If the Lessee shall first notify the Trustee of its intention so to do, the Lessee may, at its expense and in its own name and behalf or in the name and behalf of the County, in good faith contest any such taxes, assessments and other charges and, in the event of any such contest, may permit the taxes, assessments or other charges so contested to remain unpaid during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless the Trustee shall notify the Lessee that, in the opinion of Independent Counsel, by non-payment of any such items the lien of the Indenture will be materially endangered or the Project or any part thereof will be subject to loss or forfeiture, in which event such taxes, assessments or charges shall be paid promptly. The County will cooperate fully with the Lessee in any such contest. In the event that the Lessee shall fail to pay any of the foregoing items required by this Section to be paid by the Lessee, the County or the Trustee may (but shall be under no obligation to) pay the same and any amounts so advanced therefor by the County or the Trustee shall become an additional obligation of the Lessee to the one making the advancement, which amounts, together with interest thereon at the Penalty Rate from the date thereof until paid, the Lessee agrees to pay.

The County agrees that any investment tax credit and depreciation charges with respect to the Project shall be made available to the
