4. To make, do, and transact all and every kind of business of whatsoever nature or kind, including the receipt, recovery, collection, payment, compromise, settlement, and adjustment of all accounts, legacies, bequests, interests, dividends, annuities, demands, debts, taxes, and obligations, which may now or hereafter be due, owing, or payable by me or to me.

5. To make, endorse, accept, receive, sign, seal, execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds, assignments, agreements, certificates, hypothecations, checks, notes, bonds, vouchers, receipts, and such other instruments in writing of whatsoever nature and kind as may be necessary, convenient, or proper in the premises in the judgment of said attorney.

6. To deposit and withdraw for the purposes hereof, or for any other lawful purposes in either my said attorney's name or my name or jointly in both our names, in or from any banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and other financial institutions, any funds, negotiable paper, or moneys which may come into my said attorney's hands as such attorney or which I now or hereafter may have on deposit or be entitled to, and no such banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and other financial institutions shall be required to investigate or question the purposes for which such funds, deposits, moneys, or negotiable instruments are being deposited or withdrawn, and I do expressly relieve such banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and other financial institutions from all liability whatsoever for any such withdrawal or deposit by my said attorney, regardless of my said attorney's reasons therefor whether known or unknown to such banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and other financial institutions.

7. To institute, prosecute, defend, compromise, arbitrate, and dispose of legal, equitable, or administrative hearings, actions, suits, attachments, arrests, distresses or other proceedings, or otherwise engage in litigation in connection with the premises.

8. To act as my attorney or proxy in respect to any stocks, shares, bonds, or other investments, rights, or interests, I may now or hereafter hold.

9. To engage and dismiss agents, counsel, and employees, and to appoint and remove at pleasure any substitute for, or agent of, my said attorney, in respect to all or any of the matters or things herein mentioned and upon such terms as my attorney shall think fit.

10. To execute vouchers in my behalf for any and all allowances and reimbursements properly payable to me by the United States, including but not restricted to allowances and reimbursement for transportation of dependents or for shipment of household effects as authorized by law or Navy regulations or other government regulations, and to receive, endorse, and collect the proceeds of checks payable to my order drawn on the Treasurer of the United States.

11. To prepare, execute, and file income and other tax returns, and other government reports, applications, requests and documents.

12. To take possession, and order the removal and shipment, of any of my property from any post, warehouse, depot, dock, or other place of storage or safe keeping, governmental or private; and to execute and deliver any release, vouchers, receipts, shipping ticket, certificate, or other instrument necessary or convenient for such purposes.

13. To waive, release, convey, transfer or destroy any and all rights of dower, curtesy, homestead or other right or interest that I may now or hereafter have in any property or in or to which I may now or hereafter have any right, title, or interest of any nature whatsoever.

14. To borrow money and execute promissory note or notes in my name evidencing such indebtedness, and to pledge as security therefor any property belonging to me; to borrow or make loans on any and all life insurance policies held by me or insuring my life.

15. To endorse or assign any certificate of title to any automobile which I own or in which I have any interest.
