

all and singular the premises before mentioned unto the Grantee, and the Grantee's heirs or successors and assigns forever. And, the Grantor does hereby bind the Grantor and the Grantor's heirs or successors, executors, and administrators to warrant and forever defend all and singular said premises unto the Grantee and the Grantee's heirs or successors and against every person whomsoever lawfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof.

THE EASEMENT is to and does convey to the Grantee, its successors and assigns the following: The right and privilege of entering the aforesaid strip of land, and to construct, maintain, and operate within the limits of same, and drain pipe; the right of ingress and egress from said strip of land across the land referred to above for the purpose of exercising the rights herein granted; provided that the failure of the Grantee to exercise any of the rights herein granted shall not be construed as a waiver of abandonment of the right thereafter at any time and from time to time exercise any or all of same. No building shall be erected over said drain pipe nor so close thereto as to impose any load thereon.

IT IS AGREED that the Grantor may plant crops, maintain fences and use this strip of land, provided: That crops shall not be planted over any pipes where the tops of the pipes are less than eighteen (18) inches under the surface of the ground; that the use of said strip of land by the Grantor shall not, in the opinion of the Grantee, interfere or conflict with the use of said strip of land by the Grantee for the purposes herein mentioned, and that no use shall be made of the said strip of land that would, in the opinion of the Grantee, injure, endanger, or render inaccessible the drain pipe or their appurtenances.
