

that there is no possibility whatsoever of a reconciliation between the parties and further finds that there has been no collusion between the parties for the purposes of obtaining this divorce and that this Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action. Finally in connection with the Agreement of the parties, it appears that there is a truck and race car presently in the Respondent's possession and the Petitioner has agreed to relinquish any and all rights to any equitable interest she might have in said automobiles. Finally, the Petitioner requests the right to return to the use of her maiden name, namely Thompson, and the Court is satisfied that such request is appropriate and is not being sought for any illegal purpose, nor to defraud any creditors and that such request should be granted and the Petitioner is therefore hereby granted the right to have any and all documents and records, official and unofficial, to be altered to reflect the change in the Petitioner's name. Finally, it appears that the record in this matter should be sealed to be opened only upon a properly certified Order of this Court and further appears that owing to the nature of the proof required for the Petitioner to obtain her divorce, that the Court should require that the names of the parties in this matter and the fact that the divorce has been granted shall not be released for publication in any newspapers.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
