(5) Upon the death of one or more of my children, in order for the Trustees to be able to dispose of said property by deed, they must have, in writing, more than 50% of the beneficial ownership of said property.

(6) My said Trustees shall have the power and authority, again upon the written agreement of more than 50% of my living children, to borrow money and put the property as collateral security for said note, and they shall have the power and authority as aforesaid to execute any deed of conveyance and no one shall question their authority to act in this connection.

(7) In the event of the death of one of my Trustees, the majority of the remaining beneficial owners shall appoint a successor Trustee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hand and seal this day and year first above written.
