

of said power of appointment, as the case may be, shall be added to Trust B and thereafter administered as a part of Trust B in the same manner as though it had been an original part of Trust B.

6.06 RIGHT TO NAME NEW TRUSTEE. In addition to the power of appointment vested in my wife by Article 6.04, I hereby give my wife the right, power and authority at any time, for any reason whatsoever, to dismiss the Trustee named herein upon thirty (30) days written notice, and to name a successor Trustee to replace the dismissed Trustee. Within thirty (30) days after notification of his dismissal as Trustee, said Trustee shall file an accounting with my wife and also with the substituted Trustee and shall turn over all of the assets of the Trust to the substituted Trustee.

ARTICLE SEVEN

TRUST B

The Grantor directs that Trust B be held, administered and disposed of by the Trustee upon the following trusts:

7.01 SPRAY INCOME AMONG BENEFICIARIES. During the lifetime of the Grantor's wife, the Trustee may, in its sole discretion, pay to her or use for her benefit, or pay to or use for the benefit of one or more of the Grantor's descendants so much of the net income of Trust B (in equal or unequal shares, or all to one or more of such beneficiaries to the exclusion of the others) as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may determine to be necessary, in addition to their respective income from all other sources known to the Trustee, for the reasonable support, maintenance, and education of any such beneficiary, taking into consideration their manner of living during the Grantor's lifetime. Any income not distributed hereunder may be added to principal and invested as a part thereof.

After Trust A has been exhausted and so long as the Grantor's wife shall live, the Trustee shall pay to her, at any one time during each annual accounting period ending with the anniversary of the date of the Grantor's death, such amount of the principal of Trust B as she shall request in writing, up to, but not to exceed, the greater of $5,000.00 or 5% of the value of the principal of Trust B at the time of the particular request. Such right of the wife to request principal payments to her shall not accumulate from year to year.

7.02 INVASION OF PRINCIPAL FOR WIFE AND CHILDREN. If the payments to the Grantor's wife under the provisions of this Article, together with funds available from all other sources known to the Trustee, shall be insufficient to provide adequately for her reasonable support, and maintenance and the reasonable support, maintenance, and education of any of the Grantor's descendants who may be dependent upon her, taking into consideration her and their manner of living during the Grantor's lifetime, the Trustee shall pay to her or use for her benefit such sum or sums, as the Trustee determines to be required for such purposes, from the principal of Trust B. Provided however, the Trustee shall not encroach upon the principal of Trust B for the support of maintenance of the Grantor's wife unless Trust A has been completely exhausted.

7.03 DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST B ON WIFE'S DEATH. Upon the death of the survivor of the Grantor's wife and the Grantor, the Trustee
