

Section 2. The said Board or its committee shall have the right, at their election, to enter upon any lot during construction, erection, or installation of improvements or alterations to inspect the work being undertaken in order to determine that such work is being performed in conformity with the approved plans and specifications and in a good and workmanlike manner, utilizing approved methods and good quality materials.

Section 3. Declarant does not intend to develop or place any recreational facilities on the common area.

ARTICLE X.

USE RESTRICTIONS

Section 1. Rules and Regulations. The Board of Directors of the Association shall have the power to formulate, publish, and enforce reasonable rules and regulations concerning the use and enjoyment of the yard space of each lot and the common area. Such rules and regulations, along with all policy resolutions and policy actions taken by the Board of Directors, shall be recorded in a Book of Resolutions, which shall be maintained in a place convenient to the owners and available to them for inspection during normal business hours.

Section 2. Use of Property. Each building, the residences therein, and the common area and facilities shall be for the following uses and subject to the following restrictions, and, in addition, to those set forth in the By-laws.

(a) All buildings and the common area and facilities shall be used for residential and related common purposes. Each residence may not be subdivided and shall be used as a single-family residence and for no other purpose except that the Declarant may use one or more residences for offices and/or model residences for sales purposes.

(b) Nothing shall be kept and no activity shall be carried on in any building or residence or on the common area and facilities which will increase the rate of insurance, applicable to residential use, for the property or the contents thereof. No
