

employ as he shall think fit in the payment of any debts, or interest, payable by me, or taxes, assessments, insurance, and expenses due and payable or to become due and payable on account of my real and personal estate, or in or about any of the purposes herein mentioned, or otherwise for my use and benefit, or to invest in my own name in any stocks, shares, bonds, securities or other property, real or personal, as he may think proper, and to receive and give receipts for any income or dividend arising from such investments, and all and any such investments or other investments to vary or dispose of for my use and benefit as he may think fit.

14. For all or any of the purposes of these presents to enter into and sign, seal, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any contracts, deeds, or other instruments whatsoever, and to draw, accept, make, endorse, discount, or otherwise deal with any bills of exchange, checks, promissory notes, or other commercial or mercantile instruments.

15. To pay every month, or weekly, the sum required to meet my ordinary household expenses, and also in the discretion of my attorney-in-fact to pay such charitable subscriptions as I have been in the habit of paying (and to make such other payments by way of charity as in the circumstances he shall think that I would make if I were present).

16. The rights, powers, and authority of said attorney-in-fact to exercise any and all of the rights and powers herein granted shall commence and be in full force and effect from date subscribed, and such rights, powers, and authority shall remain in full force and effect until revoked by the grantor in writing and with public notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the City and County of Greenville, State of South Carolina.
