

accounts of any business, estate, trust, partnership, or other transaction whatsoever and to enter into any compromise and release in regard thereto.

(16) To employ nurses and doctors, attorneys-at-law, domestic servants, agents and others, and to remove them and to appoint others in their place, and to pay and allow to them for their services such salaries, wages or other remuneration as my Attorney shall deem proper.

(17) To assert, defend, compromise, acquire or dispose of or otherwise deal with any claim either along or in conjunction with other persons, relating to me or any property of mine or any other person, or any government, or any estate of a deceased person or an incompetent person, or any trust whether created by will of a deceased person or instrument of a living person, or property of whatsoever nature; to institute, prosecute, defend, compromise, or otherwise dispose of, and to appear for me in, any proceedings at law or in equity or otherwise before any tribunal for the enforcement or for the defense of any such claim, and to retain, discharge and substitute counsel and authorize appearance of such counsel to be entered for me in any such action or proceeding.

(18) To arbitrate any claim in which I may be in any manner interested, and for that purpose to enter into agreements