associations because it provides a generally accepted measurement of the rise in cost of living.

If the Consumer Price Index formula should ever prove inadequate to provide for the maintenance which the Board of Directors feels is necessary, the Board must then obtain the consent of two-thirds of the homeowners as provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 3 in order to increase dues to an amount greater than is permitted under the Consumer Price Index formula.)

(c) Increase by Members. From and after January 1, 1984 the annual assessment may be increased by a percentage greater than that established by the Consumer Price Index formula by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of each class of members who are voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting duly called for such purpose, written notice of which, setting forth the purpose of the meeting, shall be sent to all members not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days in advance of the meeting. The limitations herein set forth shall not apply to any increase in assessments undertaken as an incident to a merger or consolidation in which the Association is authorized to participate under its Articles of Incorporation. Notwithstanding the above, the Board of Directors at all times are authorized to increase assessments to the extent necessary to pay insurance premiums and real estate taxes as affect the Property.

(d) Establishment of Annual Assessment. In establishing the annual assessment for any assessment year, the Board of Directors shall consider all current costs and expenses of the Association, any accrued debts, and reserves for future needs, but it may not fix the annual assessment in an amount in excess of the sums derived by application of the Consumer Price Index formula provided in Subsection (b) without the consent of members required by Subsection (c) of this Section 3.

All sums collected from assessments shall be divided into two parts with one part being used for current operations or recurring expenses and the other part being used as a reserve
