

Trustees shall pay the amount, so determined, from the net income of this trust, to the Settlor's wife, in convenient installments at least as often as quarterly during her life or until she remarries.

(b) Whenever the Trustees determine that after the payment of an installment of income to the Settlor's wife, there exists a surplus in the net income account for that period, the Trustees may pay the balance of the net income for that period in equal shares to James Allen Hart, Jr. and William Marion Hart.

(c) Whenever the Trustees determine that the income of the Settlor's wife from all sources known to the Trustees is not sufficient to provide for her support, comfort, and welfare in her accustomed manner of living, the Trustees may, in their discretion pay to, or use for the benefit of, the Settlor's wife so much of the principal of the trust as the Trustees determine to be required for those purposes.

2. Upon the death of the survivor of the Settlor and his wife or upon the remarriage of the Settlor's wife, the Trustees shall divide the trust property, as then constituted, into three equal portions. The Trustees shall distribute one portion, free and clear of trust, to each child of the Settlor. The portion of any child of the Settlor, not living at the time of the distribution, shall be distributed to the descendants of that child, per stirpes.

ARTICLE VI

1. If any beneficiary to whom the Trustees are directed in a preceding provision to distribute any share of trust principal is under the age of twenty-one years when the distribution is to be made, and if no other trust is then to be held under this instrument for his primary benefit, his share shall vest in interest in him indefeasibly, but the Trustees may in their discretion continue to hold it as a separate trust for such period of time as the Trustees deem advisable but not after the time the beneficiary reaches that age, in the meantime using for his benefit so much of the income and principal as the Trustees determine to be required, in addition to his other income from all sources known to the Trustees, for his reasonable support, comfort and education and adding any excess income to principal at the discretion of the Trustees.

2. If at any time any beneficiary to whom the Trustees are directed in this instrument to pay any income is under legal disability or is in the opinion of the Trustees incapable of properly managing his affairs, the Trustees may use such income for his support and comfort.

3. The Trustees either may expend directly any income or principal which they are authorized in this instrument to use from the benefit of any person, or may pay it over to him or for his use to his parent or guardian, or to any person with whom he is residing, without responsibility for its expenditure.

4. No beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall have any right or power to anticipate, pledge, assign, sell, transfer, alienate or encumber his or her interest in the trust, in any way; nor shall any such interest in any manner be liable for or subject to the debts, liabilities, or obligations of such beneficiary or claims of any sort against such beneficiary.

1197
988

4328-RV-2