 State of N. Carolina I know all men by these presents that I William Rutherford County Staton of the county and state aforesaid in consideration of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to me paid by Wallace Davenport of the state of South Carolina and district of Greenville, have granted, bargained and sold and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, and quit claims unto the said Willis Davenport all that tract or parcel of land, containing by estimation, one hundred acres (or the same more or less) situate in the district of Greenville aforesaid on the waters of Reddy River, being part of a tract of land, conveyed by John W. Hansell to John Archer and from said Archer to Ezekiel Hawkins, and from said Hawkins to myself. Beginning on a red oak corner, thence Southwardly on John Sammons line to a Post oak on the old original line, thence along said line, westwardly to a hickory corner, thence along Harrison's line to a red oak corner, thence eastwardly to a hickory corner, on a hanch ^{being} John Sammons, and John Hansell corner, thence up the meanders of said hanch & follow a straight line to the beginning red oak. Together with all and singular the rights, members, hereditaments and appurtenances to the said premises belonging or in any wise incident or appertaining: To have and to hold all and singular the premises before mentioned unto the said Willis Davenport his heirs and assigns forever. And I do hereby bind my self my heirs, executors & administrators, to warrant and forever defend
