Deed

The State of South Carolina
 whereas on the eighteenth day of May AD 1874 Emma M. Westfield and Whitner

Symmes plaintiffs, exhibited their Complaint for Relief in the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Greenville and State aforesaid, against Thomas M. Cox, Thomas C. Gower, William Gimie and others Defendants, wherein amongst other things it was alleged that one John Westfield, now deceased, on the _____ day of _____ AD 1873 sold and conveyed to the plaintiff Whitner Symmes and Thomas M. Cox and Thomas C. Gower, the Defendants, and to one James Gimie, also now deceased an undivided four (4-5) fifties interest in and to certain real estate, in and around the City of Greenville, in the County and State aforesaid, and more particularly described in the deed of conveyance of that date, and on the 30th day of September AD 1873 the said John Westfield, agreed to sell to the firm of Cox, Gimie & Co. (which was composed of himself, and other parties last above named) certain other lots or parcels of land in and near the City of Greenville, and County and State aforesaid, and were particularly described in said agreement, and that the said parties who were interested in the lands above mentioned, in order to facilitate the sale and transfer of said lands, had agreed to and amongst themselves, to convey all of the said lands in trust to two of their number to sell and divide the proceeds of sale amongst the parties according to their respective interests, and prayed amongst other things that these matters might be inquired into, and if found advisable to carry out the said agreement in reference to
