

of "Enoree Presbyterians of the Synod of South Carolina" Provided always and it is understood by and between the parties to these presents, that in the event the said Presbyterian Church fails to use the said premises for religious purposes, then the said lot herein granted, to revert to the said W. J. Shumate his heirs and assigns forever, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, but should the said premises so revert, then and in that event, the said Deacons or their successors in office shall have full compensation for all improvements that may have been erected on said lot or if they prefer the power and privilege to remove from said lot all such improvements, and I do hereby bind myself my heirs, executors and administrators, to warrant & forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the said Deacons and their successors against me and my heirs, and all other persons who however lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.
