Supper, and Krutzing. Whereas James O. Boyce, Trustee of the Estate of Nancy O. Supper and her children, under the will of the late Fern Boyce, on or about the 26th day of December A.D. 1857, purchased for said Trust Estate, certain First Mortgage Bonds of the Illinois Central Railroad Company of the value of Three Thousand and Sixty (A. 23, 60). And whereas said Bonds were subsequently lost through theft and without any default or negligence on the part of the said James O. Boyce, who nevertheless understood to save the said Trust Estate harmless from said loss, and for that purpose executed to Cornelius L. Decker, Trustee of his bond bearing date the 7th July 1866, secured by a Mortgage in form of an Assignment of said Estate in the County of Jefferson, State of Tennessee, and on or about the of the Register Messrs Conway and Co. for Charles Ton County in Book S. 14. page 367, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Greenville County in Book A. page 178. And whereas, we the said H. W. Hawthorne, Lattie Hawthorne, and Fred L. Supper are minded to release the said James O. Boyce of and from all claim which we, or either of us, or any person claiming by, through or under us, or either of us, may have by reason of the purchase and loss of the said Illinois Central Railroad Bonds, or by reason of the assumption of said loss by the said James O. Boyce, and the execution of the bond and book page aforesaid to C. L. Decker Trustee, Now know all men by these presents, that we the said H. W. Hawthorne, Lattie Hawthorne and Fred L. Supper, in consideration of One Dollar to us in hand paid by Elizabeth L. Boyce, Lizzie F. Boyce, Lucy Boyce and Fannie Boyce, his, Executors, and administrators de vires of said James O. Boyce, have received, released, and quit claimed, and by these presents, do, for us, our Executors and Administrators, release and quit claim unto the said Elizabeth L. Boyce, Lizzie F. Boyce, and Fannie Boyce and Lucy Boyce, his his Executors and devisees, of said James O. Boyce, as well the said recited bond or obligation, as all such sums of money as therein are mentioned to be due and payable to C. L. Decker Trustee; and also all actions, suits suits and causes of action, accounts, debts, reckonings, and demands with or without which we the said H. W. Hawthorne Lattie Hawthorne and Fred L. Supper or either of us, ever had, now have, or can or may have for or against the said James O. Boyce, his his Executors and Administrators, for or by reason, of said loss of the said Illinois Central Railroad Bonds; and for or by reason of the said recited bond and Mortgage, or any other matter, cause or thing whatsoever concerning the same, from the beginning of the world down to the day of the date of these presents.

In witness whereof, we the Parties above named, hereunto set our hands and seals this 7th day of June Anno Domini Eighteen Hundred and eighty nine, and in the 118 year of American Independence. F. L. Supper, and
