

and Lavinia J. Hawthorne his wife was this day fore and to me by the last which was acknowledged by the said H. C. Hawthorne to be his act and deed, and the contents and effect of the instrument being explained to the said Lavinia Hawthorne by me separately and apart from her husband, she thereupon declared that she did freely and voluntarily execute and deliver the same to be his act and deed, and consented that the same might be recorded as herein under my hand and seal of office this 7th day of June, 1889.

William Ellyson,
Notary Public.

State of Virginia.

City of Richmond, to-wit } J. William P. Lawton, Clerk of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond in said State (said Court being a Court of record) do hereby certify that William Ellyson, whose name is required to the foregoing and accompanying certificate, is now, and was at the time of signing the same a Notary in and for the said City, duly qualified and authorized under the laws of State to administer oaths for general purposes, and to take acknowledgments to deeds and other papers; that his said signature is genuine, and that all of his official acts are entitled to faith and credit, and that the said attestation is in due form of law.

In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, and affixed the seal of the said Court, this 7th day of June 1889.

J. W. Lawton Clerk.

472 Mary, C. Tupper.	Release.	Republic of Mexico. State of Coahuila.
To		In all to whom these presents
James O. Boyce.		may come or may concern J. Mary C. Tupper and
Grating; Whereas, James O. Boyce trustee of the Estate of Nancy B. Tupper and her children, under the will of the late J. Orr Boyce, of Charleston South Carolina United States of North America, on or about the 26th day of December 1857, purchased certain first mortgage bonds of the Illinois Central Railroad Company of the value of Twenty three thousand and sixty dollars ($23,060.00) and whereas said bonds were subsequently lost through the fortune, and without any default or negligence on the part of the said James O. Boyce, who nevertheless undertakes to insure the said trust estate harmless from said loss and for that purpose consented to Cornelius S. B. [unclear] under his last will, and on the 7th day of June 1889

and by a mortgage of some part of certain real estate in Charleston and Greenville Counties, South Carolina, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds and Conveyance for Charleston County in book 3, 14 page 367, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Greenville County in Book A A page 198, and whereas the said Mary C. Tupper was one of the children of the said Nancy B. Tupper, and as such has a certain interest in the said trust estate, held by the said James O. Boyce, trustee under the will of the late J. Orr Boyce for Nancy B. Tupper and her children, and whereas I am minded to release the said James O. Boyce of and from all claims which the said Mary C. Tupper or any person claiming by, through or under me, may have, by reason of the purchase and loss of the said Illinois Central Railroad Bonds, or by reason of the assumption of the said bonds by the said James O. Boyce and the execution of the bond and mortgage aforesaid to C. L. Bunker Trustee, now known all men by these presents that I, the said Mary C. Tupper, in consideration of one dollar to me in hand paid by the said James O. Boyce have released, released and quit claimed, and by these presents do, for me, my heirs, my Executors and administrators and assigns, remise, release, and quit claim unto the said James O. Boyce, his heirs, Executors and administrators as well the said noted bond or obligation as all such sums of money as therein are mentioned to be due and payable to C. L. Bunker Trustee, and also all securities, suits, claims and causes of actions, suits accounts, debts, reckonings and demands whatsoever, which the said Mary C. Tupper ever had, now has, or can or may have, for or against the said James O. Boyce, his heirs, Executors and administrators, for or by reason of the said loss of the said Illinois Central Railroad Bonds, or for, or by reason of the said noted bond and mortgage, or any other claims, cause or thing whatsoever concerning the same, from the beginning of the world to the day of the date of these presents.

In Witness whereof I the said Mary C. Tupper have set my hand and seal this 27th day of July Anno Domini Eighteen hundred and Eighty six, and in the one hundred and Eleventh year of the Independence of the United States of North America.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of
The Notary Public being first named in the foregoing of page 472