

10. First Mortgage bonds of the North Carolina Midland Railroad Company to the amount of three hundred and ninety thousand dollars, par value, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually.

11. First Mortgage bonds of the Danville and Western Railway Company to the amount of five hundred and fifty-two thousand dollars, par value, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually. the District of Columbia, purchased and acquired since the making, execution and delivery of the said consolidated mortgage of October 22, 1886, upon which said Company has erected office buildings, depot, stations and freight-houses, and has laid track, all of which lands, buildings and tracts have ever since been and are now used and occupied in connection with the railway system owned and operated by said The Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, and constitute an integral and necessary part thereof, such property being more specifically mentioned and described as follows, to wit:

The following lots, pieces and parcels of land as shown on the plan of the City of Washington, viz:

(A) In SQUARE 256

All of Original Lots 11 and 12, and part of original Lot 13, on which is situated the General Office Buildings of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company.

This parcel being subject to a lease of $75,000, purchase money, trust deed standing in the names of Sam'l R. Bond and Francis H. Smith, Trustees, to secure the Penn. Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, and also subject to mortgage deed executed executed to Central Trust Company of New York, dated May 3, 1893, as additional security for all of the bonds issued and outstanding under the 6 per cent. consolidated mortgage of October 5, 1874.

(B) In SQUARE 269:

All of the square.

(C) In SQUARE 299:

All of Original Lots 1 to 15 inclusive, Original Lot 18, and part of Original Lots 16 and 17.

(D) In SQUARE 300:

All of the square.

Square 300, as well as the lots owned in square 299, is subject to the payment of $52,000 of Recipients