Recorded Sept. 20/94.

334 State of South Carolina,

County of Greenville.

Know all men by these presents that I, Daphne D. Collins, being the owner of the fee unincumbered by any mortgage, judgment or other lien of a certain tract of land situate, lying and being in the County of Greenville and State of South Carolina, about 16 miles from Greenville S.C., beginning at a Pine tree about 15 feet on the South East corner of Dickson's Building, and running thence north 210 feet to a Cornrod, thence West 210 feet to a Red Oak, thence South 210 feet to a Hickory, thence East 710 feet to the beginning corner, containing one acre, more or less, and bounded on all sides by lands of said Daphne D. Collins.

And I do hereby consent that the said premises may be used by James Thomson for the purpose of distilling spirits for a period of three years from September —, 1894, subject to the provisions of law. And I do hereby stipulate and agree that the lien of the United States for penalties and taxes shall have priority of any rights, title and interest in said tract of land or any claim in my behalf and that in case of the forfeiture of said premises, or any part thereof, the title to same shall rest in the United States, discharged from all my title, interest or any claim in my behalf. Witness my hand and seal the 27 day of September, A.D., 1894.
