

and incomes of said Railway Company, and all property and rights acquired by virtue and under authority thereof; and the improvements, buildings, easements, rights, members, hereditaments and appurtenances to the same belonging or in any wise appertaining including all properties, supplies or material purchased or built by the Receiver for use in the operation of such railroads. The said parties of the second part, as part of the consideration for this conveyance, take the property so purchased upon the express condition that they or their assigns will pay off or satisfy all debts or obligations incurred by the Receiver having possession of such property which have not been or shall not be paid by such receiver having possession of such property which have not been or shall not be paid by such Receiver or otherwise, and which shall be adjudged by the Court to be debts or obligations properly chargeable against the property so purchased or to be prior or superior to the lien of the mortgages foreclosed in this suit; but the ^{said} parties to the second part shall not be required to pay off and satisfy any such claim except and until the Court shall allow such claims, and adjudge the same to be prior in lien to the mortgages foreclosed in this suit, and in accordance with the orders and judgments of the Court allowing such claims and judgments with respect thereto; and the parties of the second part or their assigns by the terms of such foreclosure decree being entitled to appear and resist the allowance of such claims, and appeal from any and all orders of the Court in respect to such claims or any of them, and shall have all the rights in respect to such appearances resistance and appeals which the mortgages ^(encl. p. 90)
