6 The State of South Carolina, Shall: Whereas by a certain deed of marriage settlement entered into between H. L. P.
McCormick of Charleston County in said State and Robert S. Duryea as trustee, of the same place, in contemplation of the marriage of the said H. L. P. McCormick and Emily M.
Potureau, dated October 23rd 1866, and recorded in the office of Register of Marriage Conveyances for Charleston County in Book F. No. 15 page 33, and also in the office of the secretary of State in Columbia said State in book of Marriage settlements No. 19 page 626, certain property therein described and then belonging to the said H. L. P. McCormick was conveyed to the said Robert S. Duryea as trustee, his heirs and assigns for certain uses and trusts therein stated, the first to say among other trusts, for the sale as reported to me of the said Emily M. Potureau during her life with certain limitations and upon her dying before the said H. L. P. McCormick, and providing further as follows: That should the said Emily M. Potureau die before the said H. L. P. McCormick, his husband, there should be living in full of the said deed in a trust for the said Emily M. Potureau, her heirs and assigns that it should be lawful for the said trustee, with the consent in writing of the said Emily M. Potureau, during her life to sell to sell the said property and reinvest the proceeds as she might direct upon the same trusts, and providing further that if the said trustee should die, it should be lawful for the said H. L. P. McCormick and Emily M. Potureau or the survivor of them to nominate and appoint in writing in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, some other persons to be trustee in the place of the said trustee, and that the trustee so appointed and substituted should be vested with all the estate, title and power as the present trustee.

And whereas the said H. L. P. McCormick by his deed dated April 10th 1872 recorded in the R. M. C. office for Greenville County said State in Book D. D. pages 692-3, did convey to the said Robert S. Duryea as trustee the tract of land hereinafter particularly described, upon the same trusts and with the same powers as set forth in the aforesaid deed of Marriage Settlement.

And whereas the said Robert S. Duryea departed this life on May 16th 1875, and the said H. L. P.
McCormick and Emily M. McCormick, his wife, did, on November 26th 1881 by written endorsement upon the original deed witnessed by two credible witnesses, duly recorded in the R. M. C. Office for Charleston County in Book F. 16 page 33, nominate and substitute Hutson Lee as trustee in the place of the deceased trustee, and the said Hutson Lee having duly accepted the said trust.

And whereas the said H. L. P. McCormick has departed this life leaving as issue of the said marriage and whereas the said Emily M. Mc-Cormick has consented to the sale of the property hereinafter described, and has indicated the consent by acting as the deed witnesses in a trust for the said Emily M. McCormick, her heirs and assigns
