

The State of South Carolina
The County of Greenville.

(Lease).

This Indenture, made and concluded at Greenville City in the County and State aforesaid, this thirty-first day of August A.D. 1905, by and between W.P. Rowley the lessor on the first part, and C. E. Hicks and Company the lessee on the second part; witnesseth, that the said party of the first part has granted and leased, and by these presents does grant and lease, unto the said party of the second part, the first or ground floor of the building located at 113 South Main Street in the City of Greenville County and State aforesaid, the said building being known as the "White front Restaurant", with all the appurtenances thereto belonging;

To have and to hold,

the said premises unto the said party of the second part, his executors, heirs and assigns for a period of terminal with the lease of the part of the first part, commencing on the first day of September A.D. 1905 and ending on the termination of the lease of the party of the first part, yielding and paying at the rate of fifteen ($15.00) dollars per month, payable on the last day of each month during the duration of this lease.

And the said party of the second part, for and in consideration of the above letter premises, doth covenant and agree to pay to the said party of the first part, the above stipulated rent, in the manner herein required. And it is further agreed, that unless thirty days notice, in writing, be given, previous to the expiration of the period herein specified by the party of the first part to the party of the second part, of his desire to have possession of the premises, or to change the conditions of the lease after such expiration; or the like notice be given by the party of the second part to the party of the first part, of his intention to vacate the premises after such expiration; then it is hereby agreed that this lease will be considered as extending and binding in all its provisions for one year after such expiration; and so to continue from year to year, until such notice be given by either party, previous to the expiration of such extended time, provided the said premises be then in the control and charge of the party of the first part. And it is mutually understood that the party of the second part shall make no repairs at the expense of the party of the first part, and any alteration or improvement desired by the party of the second part at his own cost, must be done under the written sanction of the party of the first part and all such alterations and improvements shall be surrendered to the party of the first part of the removal of the party of the second part. The party of the second part shall make good all breakage of glass, and all other injuries done to the premises during his tenancy, excepting such as are produced by natural decay and unavoidable accidents. And it is further understood, by the parties to these presents, that if one month's rent shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid the party of the first part shall have the right to annual and terminate this lease, and it shall be lawful for him to re-possess and forthwith re-possess all and singular the above granted and leased premises. It is mutually understood that the room over the said above described premises is to be occupied by the Greenville Athletic and Physical Culture Club under the management of the party of the first part, and it is agreed that the light bill of said building shall be divided between the parties to these presents proportionately to the number of lights used.

It is further mutually agreed that the party of the second part will in no way interfere with the patrons of the said G. A. & P. C. Club during his tenancy, and it is also agreed by and between the parties that the premises leased are to be used exclusively for a restaurant; that the party of the second part shall not re-release or sub-lease the same without the written consent of the party of the second part and that no intoxicating liquors of any description shall be allowed to be sold on the premises occupied and used by the party of the second part.

It is further agreed by and between the parties that no person shall be employed to manage said restaurant who is not agreeable to the party of the first part, in the event of the violation of any of the above provisions and conditions this lease is to be voidable at the option of the party of the first part and he shall be entitled to all rights hereinabove set out.

In witness whereof, the parties do hereunto set their hands and seals this thirty-first day of August A.D. 1905, in duplicate.
