At a call of the Presiding Elder, Rev. J.A. Brown, the members of the Quarterly Conference of the Greenville Mission met- at the residence of A.B. Davis at 8 P.M. March 18th, 1896.

Prayer was offered by the Presiding Elder,

A. Motion was made by William Fronberger to authorize the Board of Trustees to exchange the property located on Gibbs St. and known as Martins Chapel which was purchased from T.O. Gower- for a lot located on Cooke Street near the Air Line Depot to be used for the erection of a Church for the congregation that now worship in the Church on Gibbs St.

The motion was unanimously adopted and William Fronberger, A.B. Davis, Robt. Thacker Trustees: J.A. Brown Presiding Elder and J.H. Park, Pastor were appointed by the Conference to make the exchange.

J.A. Brown, Chairman,

A.B. Davis, Secty.

Personally came before me A.B. Davis who being duly sworn certifies that the within is a true copy of the minutes of the Quarterly Conference as stated so far as they relate to the exchange of lots.
