IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

74-CL-23-945
COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, complaining of the Defendants, would respectfully show to the Court:

I.

Plaintiff is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of one of the states of the United States, with its principal place of business in the city of Greenville, county and state aforesaid; that the Defendant is a citizen and resident of the county and state aforesaid.

II.

That heretofore, the Defendant, for value received, executed and delivered a certain promissory note in writing to the Plaintiff dated September 13, 1973, by which Defendant promised to pay to Plaintiff the sum of $7,000.00, including interest and documentary stamps, said amount to be due and payable on or before March 12, 1974.

III.

That by the terms of said note, the Defendant agreed to pay interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from maturity on any amounts due but unpaid.

IV.

That by the terms of the above-mentioned note, the Defendant agreed that in the event of non-payment when due of any amount payable on the liability incurred by the Defendant, holder, herein the Plaintiff could, at its option, declare the balance immediately due and payable without notice or demand. Defendant further agreed that if it was necessary for a holder of this note to place the note in the hands of an attorney for collection, the Defendant would be liable for reasonable attorney's fees and all other costs and expenses incurred in the collection of this note, which would be added to the amount then due and
