collectible as a part thereof, and that all sums and dues under the terms of the note would bear interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum.

V.

That the Plaintiff is the holder in due course of the above-mentioned note.

VI.

Defendant has defaulted in payment of the note; that although the Plaintiff has made repeated demands on the Defendant for payment, the Defendant has failed or refused to make any payment on this past-due account.

VII.

That on March 12, 1974, the full payment of $7,000.00 was due from the Defendant to the Plaintiff; that as of July 31, 1974, the balance due on this note was $7,216.22; that Defendant has not paid any part thereof by cash, discount or otherwise and that the Plaintiff has now exercised its option under the terms of the note executed by the Defendant to declare the entire balance due and payable in the event of default, whereby the amount due and owing to the Plaintiff is the sum of $7,216.22, together with reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred for collection, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent, as provided by the terms of this note.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant in the amount of $7,216.22, together with reasonable attorney's fees and costs and expenses, including court costs, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent, as provided by the note.
