

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA)
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE)
IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

David D. Armstrong,) Plaintiff,) vs.) COMPLAINT

First Hartford Realty) Corporation,) Defendant.)

Plaintiff alleges:

I.

That he is a citizen and resident of Greenville County, South Carolina and is licensed to and is practicing law within the State of South Carolina, County of Greenville: that the Defendant, upon information and belief, is a Delaware corporation with its corporate headquarters being in Manchester, Connecticut and that during the times hereinafter alleged, the Defendant did business in Greenville County, South Carolina and that the Defendant corporation currently owns property within the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina.

II.

That for numerous years, beginning in late 1974, the Plaintiff represented the Defendant corporation and its various subsidiary organizations as corporate attorney for Defendant within Greenville County, South Carolina, under the direction and control of the officers, directors, counsel and management of First Hartford Realty Corporation.

III.

That the Plaintiff agreed to represent the Defendant and its subsidiary organizations at an hourly rate and as of August 8, 1980, pursuant to a letter written by Diana Lima, Accounts Payable Supervisor of First Hartford Realty Corporation, which is attached hereto and labeled as Exhibit "A", the Defendant owed the Plaintiff the sum of Fifteen Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Five and no/100ths Dollars ($15,665.00); that since the date of the afore-stated letter the Defendant has paid to Plaintiff certain monies and the Plaintiff has performed additional services and advanced additional costs which leave a balance due and owing on said account of Eleven Thousand Eight Hundred Nineteen and 70/100ths Dollars ($11,819.70).
