Betty Perry Thompson,
Petitioner,

vs.

Charles Howard Thompson, and Lot No. 1, "Property of J. G. and Alice S. Hayes", as shown on plat recorded in the RMC Office for Greenville County, S.C., in Plat Book KW, at Page 65; and all property of Thompson Brothers Exterminating Co., Respondents.

AMENDED AFFIDAVIT

Personally appeared before me Betty Perry Thompson, who on oath says:

That Charles Howard Thompson is justly and truly indebted to Betty Perry Thompson in the sum of One Hundred Thirty-Three Thousand Sixteen and 62/100 ($133,016.62) Dollars and that she is entitled to an attachment against the said Charles Howard Thompson upon the grounds that he has departed from the State with intent to defraud petitioner who is one of his creditors and with the intent to avoid service of legally issued process and does conceal himself with like intent; that he has disposed of property subsequent to the rendition of the petitioner's judgment with intent to defraud her; that respondent, upon Sworn to before me, this the 22nd day of May, 1985, information and belief, is no longer a resident of S.C.
