This matter comes before the Court upon the joint motion of the parties who are requesting that the Court issue this Order reflecting the agreement the parties have reached.

The Complaint alleges the defendant is obliged to reimburse the plaintiff for fifty percent (1/2) of certain expenses and liability for which the Complaint alleges the parties to have been equally responsible. Plaintiff's claim is that he incurred $9,844.66 by way of legal expenses in the defense of a lawsuit instituted by IFG Leasing Company. The Complaint further alleges the business in which the parties formerly engaged is indebted to the Internal Revenue Service in the amount of $19,000.00, plus interest and penalties.

The parties have now reached an agreement under the terms of which the defendant will consent to judgment in the amount of $4,917.33, representing his fifty percent share of the legal expenses previously incurred. The parties are further agreed that the
